

Shown finalizing the new Collective Agreement between Transportation and Infrastructure Renewal and the Highways Workers Union CUPE Local 1867 are chief engineer Bruce Fitzner, Steve Joy and Mike Maclsaac of CUPE, and former Minister Maurice Smith. The three-year agreement runs from November 1, 2011 to October 31, 2014. CUPE Local 1867 employees will receive a retroactive wage increase of 2 per cent effective November 1, 2011 and 2.5 per cent effective November 1, 2012. A further 3 per cent increase will come into effect November 1, 2013. This retroactive pay was included on the November 28, 2013 payment.
